FFTC manages more than 150 scholarship programs that are available to students in communities across the Carolinas. Scholarship awards range from $500 to $10,000 and provide support to students from kindergarten to graduate school. Each scholarship program has its own eligibility criteria.

Scholarships are established at FFTC by families and individuals, companies and nonprofits to provide educational opportunities for students. In 2020, the Foundation awarded $2.4 million in scholarships to more than 1,000 students.
