

August 5, 2024

News Release

Grants Available: Cabarrus County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications from Nonprofits

CONCORD – The Cabarrus County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications for its 2023 grant program. Eligible organizations include 501(c)(3) publicly supported charities, churches and religious organizations, governmental agencies and educational institutions.

High Priority will be given to projects and programs that address education and youth development and housing and shelter. Other priorities areas that will be considered are food, agriculture, and nutrition; health care; human services; and mental health and crisis intervention. All proposed projects and programs must serve residents of Cabarrus County.

Award amounts will be determined based on the merits of the project. Previous awards have ranged from $1,000 to $10,000. The Foundation’s average grant award is $5,000.

To begin the application process, visit fftcgrants.communityforce.com and select “Cabarrus County Community Foundation” to access the online application. Returning applicant organizations can log in to the Online Grants Center using their previously established ID and password. First-time applicant organizations can create a new account. Completed applications must be submitted online by noon on Friday, August 30. The online application closes promptly at 12 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.

Please contact Jamie Wildgoose with further questions about the application process at jwildgoose@fftc.org or at 704.973.4550.

About the Cabarrus County Community Foundation:

Established in 1989 as a permanent endowment, the Cabarrus County Community Foundation benefits a wide range of charitable purposes. As an affiliate of Charlotte-based Foundation For The Carolinas, the Cabarrus County Community Foundation inspires philanthropy, increases charitable giving and strengthens the community. For more information, please visit www.cabarruscounty-cf.org.

###

Media Contact: Jamie Wildgoose, Board & Grants Specialist, Foundation For The Carolinas, 704.973.4550 or jwildgoose@fftc.org.